Mr. Ben Strickland,
P. O. Box 5147
Moss Point, Miss. 39563

Dear Mr. Strickland:

I read recently, in Family Puzzlers, that you had published a book entitled, "Records of Jones Co, Miss., Deeds 1827-1856"

My gr.gr. grand father, Absalom Carroll, moved to what is now Jones Co., in 1818, from Colleton Co., S.C., along with some 15 other families. He was listed in both Wayne and Perry Co's in the 1820 Census. He died about 1828, and his widow, Eleanor Carroll, was listed as head of the household in Jones Co., in 1830. Their son, my gr. grandfather, John Edward Carroll, married Mary Strain in Jones Co., in 1834. They were listed in Jones Co. in 1840 and in Covington Co. in 1850. The Jones Co. Tax Records include the following for John E. Carroll:

1839 - 80 acres - Tallahala Cr.
1840 - 80 " - Bogue Homo Cr.
1841 - 100 "

My grand father, Absalom Washington Carroll, was born in Jones Co., "near Ellisville", in 1848. His brother, Thomas Robinson Carroll, wrote to him in 1909, setting down their family history. He stated that they lived on the Bogue Homo. John Edward Carroll, with other members of the family, moved to La. in 1851-2. Eleanor Carroll married a Mr. Cooper, and was listed as "Elender Cooper", in the home of her dau. and son-in-law, the James Allen Hargrove family, in Jones Co. in 1850.

I feel certain that Absalom and Eleanor are buried somewhere in Jones Co. Mr. H.H. Daniel of Bay Spring wrote me some time ago that he would look for their burial place, if I could tell him what section to search. Some ten years ago, I made a trip to Jones Co. and examined the Index Records at both Ellisville and Laurel. There was no mention of Absalom, Eleanor, or John Edward Carroll at either courthouse. At that time they had very few records prior to 1850.

If you have found any reference to these people, which would show where on the Bogue Homestead they lived, I would be very happy to pay you for the information.

Several of Absalom Carroll's children were listed in Jones Co. in 1850, others in Covington and Jasper Co's, but the ones in Jones Co. were all gone when the 1860 Census was taken. I have just thought of one other item which might locate Absalom Carroll. The 1820 Census of Wayne Co. shows him next door to his son-in-law, Thomas Williams. This family was listed in Jones Co. in 1830-1840-1850. Thus if your records locate Thomas Williams, (born 1785), it would also tend to locate Absalom Carroll.

I would greatly appreciate any help that you can give me.

Sincerely,

Francis Carroll

Dear Miss, Mrs. or Mr. McLain,

I have been researching the McLain family history for 13 years and I am trying to accumulate enough information to write an accurate history of the family from the earliest records in Scotland and Ireland until now.

The name has been spelled many different ways, some spellings are as follows:

McLain      MacLaine      McLaine      McLane      McClain      McLean

I am a direct descendant of Jesse McLain, born 1794 in South Carolina. This man moved from there to Georgia in the early 1800's, then on to Alabama sometime around 1820. He married two times. In 1822 he married Philloby (or Pheriba) Hobson in Jefferson County, Alabama and in 1837 he married Sarah Knight in Perry County, Alabama. He had children by both marriages. About 1856 he and most of his surviving family (from both marriages) moved to Mississippi. During the early 1860's, most of the family (with the exception of sons David & Jesse who left to fight in the Civil War), moved from here in Neshoba County (near Philadelphia), Mississippi. The move, I believe, was an effort to protect his remaining children, ages 16 years and younger, from the terrible ordeals of war that were soon to follow. The elder Jesse McLain was almost 65 years old at this time. Archibald (Archy) was living near Little Rock, Arkansas and married a woman named Sarah. Also, another brother or nephew named Thomas (Tom) was also living there around 1900. Jesse died in 1870 and was buried in Polk County, Arkansas. His family, now consisting of a son, James T. (age 10), a daughter Cornelia E. (age 5), his widow, Sarah (age 51), a son, Edmond W. (age 15), and a son Archibald (age 13), moved from Polk County soon after and I have no concrete information on other family members after 1860.

Below is a list of the known family members at the time they moved from here in the early 1860's:

Jesse McLain	- Father	- Born about 1774 in South Carolina

If any of the names in this list are the names of your relatives, or if you have any information about these persons, please let me hear from you. I am trying to find as many connections to our family members as I can, and would appreciate any information you could give me.

If you are not interested in the family history, please give this letter to a relative who might have time to write. I will answer any letter I receive. Please understand, I am not trying to sell anything, I am just trying to locate these decendants for my own information, and I will be very grateful for any help you may give.

If you or a relative cannot contact me, please leave this letter with your local librarian and ask that she post it on a bulletin board and / or put a copy in the geneology section of the library in the Surname Registry.

Thank You Very Much,

Douglas R. McLain
